

Week 7: The Resurrection

Theme: Victory and New Life

Key Scripture: Luke 24:1–12; 1 Corinthians 15:20–22

Focus: Jesus conquers death

Teaching: The resurrection confirms Jesus as Lord and offers new life, hope, and victory over sin and death.

Luke 24:1–12 and 1 Corinthians 15:20–22 remind us that the resurrection of Jesus is the foundation of our hope. The empty tomb shows that death does not have the final word, and sin has been defeated through Christ. His rising brings new life, not just in eternity, but in our daily lives, giving us the strength to live with hope, courage, and joy. Through Jesus, we are reminded that God's promises are true, and His power can renew and transform us completely.

Discussion Questions:

- Why is the resurrection essential to our faith?
- How does resurrection hope impact daily life?
- What does “new life” look like for you now?

Scripture Engagement Questions:

1. Why is the resurrection essential to Christian faith?
2. How does the resurrection validate Jesus' claims and sacrifice?
3. What fears does the resurrection confront in our lives?
4. How does resurrection hope change how we view suffering and death?
5. What does “new life” practically look like for believers today?
6. How does the resurrection call us into mission and witness?
7. In what ways is God inviting you to live differently because Jesus is alive?

Reflection/Prayer:

Celebrate with prayers of praise and renewed commitment to live in resurrection power.
